

BALDO

Artist/Co-Creator Carlos Castellanos

Hosts Comics Workshop

October 13 at Main Library

Carlos Castellanos, artist and co-creator of the daily comic strip Baldo, will visit Main Library, 100 South Andrews Ave, Ft. Lauderdale, at 2 p.m. on October 13, 2007 to speak about his work and conduct a comic strip drawing workshop. So bring paper, pencils, plenty of questions and of course, your imagination.

Baldo, launched in 2000 by Universal Press Syndicate, features Latino characters and themes and centers around a Hispanic teenage boy living between two cultures.

The comic strip runs daily in over 200 newspapers and two collections of Baldo entitled 'The Lower You Ride, the Cooler You Are' and 'Night of the Bilingual Telemarketers', have been published in book form. Two episodes of a new Baldo animated television series premiered at the San Diego Latino Film Festival this past March.

Carlos Castellanos was always interested in drawing and began his freelance career in 1981 while still in college. In addition to Baldo, he also works with magazines, book publishers, ad agencies and corporate clients. He lives in South Florida with his wife and three sons.

